

We can ship anything from one box of personal effects to everything that you may wish to ship home including awkward items such as backpacks, guitars, computers, TV's and bikes. Although slower, seafreight can be a more cost effective way of sending your goods back.

Collection can be arranged from your student accommodation and boxes can be supplied in advance to assist you with packing everything up.

Sending goods via air is a really quick way to send things home and can be cost effective for smaller consignments. To get you a price we need to know the external dimensions and weight of each item you are looking to send.

We service most European & International locations with services to arrival port or airport. It is usually also possible to also get door to door costing's for you.

As well as friendly advice we will also try and get you the best discounted rates available. If there are a few of you going to the same destination at the same time then you could consider grouping your things together to save monies on shipping.
